DEMISCH DANANT

PASSAGE with Jos Devriendt

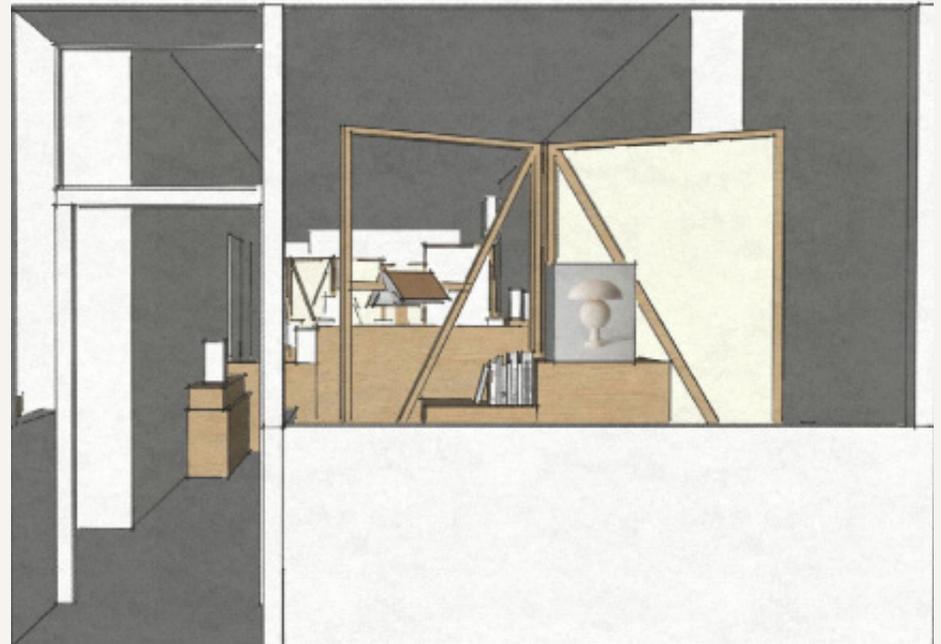

Presented in collaboration with Colin King
September 14 - October 16, 2021

Passage (noun)

- The act or process of moving forward.
- The process of transition from one state to another.
- Selected definitions from Merriam Webster

Demisch Danant is pleased to announce PASSAGE, a presentation of works by Jos Devriendt, conceived in collaboration with Colin King. Inspired by the behind-the-scenes, the transitional, and the creative process, Demisch Danant and Colin King assemble a selection of recent Jos Devriendt ceramic works, presented in New York for the first time. By using simple wood shelving and pallets as display, DD x CK emphasize the craftsmanship behind each master work, as if found in an artist's studio.

“Great art can be experienced in an unvarnished setting, without losing its integrity or aesthetic force,” said Colin King. The humble materials of stone, canvas, and raw wood offer a temporary backdrop that reveal the refined forms of the art objects. “The creative process is a state of perpetual transition, of making choices to move forward,” added Suzanne Demisch. “We want to offer viewers a different experience of the works, in a new light, as if from the artist’s point of view, a bit unfinished, in transformation.” Over 30 recent works will be on view through October 16, 2021.

ABOUT DEMISCH DANANT

Demisch Danant was founded in 2005 by Suzanne Demisch and Stephane Danant. The gallery specializes in twentieth-century French design with an emphasis on the late 1950s through the 1970s and represents the work of Maria Pergay, Pierre Paulin, Jacques Dumond, Joseph-André Motte, Pierre Guariche, Michel Boyer, Antoine Philippon & Jacqueline Lecoq and René-Jean Caillette. Curated exhibitions on historical work are presented within environments that reference architecture and interiors of the era.

The gallery also features exhibitions concerning the intersection of architecture, design and art, including the work of Sheila Hicks and César.

Demisch Danant is dedicated to research and scholarship on French design and has published and authored monographs including Antoine Philippon and Jacqueline Lecoq, Maria Pergay: Complete Works 1957-2010, Maria Pergay by François Halard, and Maria Pergay: Sketch Book. Current projects include a comprehensive monograph on seminal designer Joseph-André Motte and a new book about works by Sheila Hicks commissioned for architectural projects.
